Hallwood Shorthorn Dispersion

TO BE HELD AT HALLWOOD FARM
CARTHAGE, MISSOURI
Thursday, June 29, 1916

THE ENTIRE HERD OWNED BY THE LATE ED. M. HALL
C. T. HALL and J. E. LANG, Administrators

Announcement

Seventeen years ago and more my brother, E. M. Hall, and I started breeding Shorthorn cattle as our life's business.

After nine years in business together I sold my interest in the herd to my brother and went West for my health. Those who read this catalog know how successfully Ed M. Hall built up the Hallwood Shorthorns.

Since the tragedy at Hallwood, which claimed my brother's life, and for the same reason that severed our business partnership nine years ago, I am now forced to disperse the herd.

The pain of tearing the Hallwood herd asunder will be somewhat relieved by knowing that Ed Hall's friends will profit by its division. May those who acquire the Hallwood animals never regret their purchases, and may the Shorthorn business grow "better farther on."

C. T. HALL.

GUARANTEE.

Every animal of breeding age catalogued in this sale has been a regular breeder. The herd bulls are sure. The number of calves at foot and cows and heifers well along in calf is sufficient guarantee of the usefulness of the entire offering of a herd in which barren cows and shy breeders were not tolerated, and all such were marketed by Mr. Hall as soon as proven useless as breeders.

Certificates of registration, full pedigree and certificate of health furnished with every animal sold.

As this is an administrator's sale we are not in a position to grant time. Terms are cash.

THE HALLWOOD FARM.

Is located six miles north and west of Carthage on gravel roads. Carthage is on main line Missouri Pacific railroad, Kansas City to Joplin, 150 miles south of Kansas City and main line Frisco main line St. Louis to Joplin.

Interurban cars every half hour, Joplin to Carthage, an hour's ride. Santa Fe, Kansas City Southern, M. K. & T. railroads reach Joplin. Also interurban from Pittsburg, Kans.

Transportation from Halbrook Drug Store to Hallwood, also from trains and hotels.

Cols. Harriman, Jones and Boland, auctioneers.

Choice Goods Model was purchased at eleven months of age at a cost of $1,500 for use at Hallwood. As a calf he was junior champion of America, and as a three-year-old was also a championship winner at leading fairs shown. After his first crop of calves had arrived, Mr. M. C. Maris of Portland, Ore., tried to buy him for a Western breeder. His limit to put in a bull was $3,500, but after inspecting Choice Goods Model and receiving a price on him of $5,000, he telegraphed his customer regarding the bull, and asking him to meet the price. The customer wired back that $4,000 was his limit, and an offer of this amount was made, which was flatly refused. He remained in service at Hallwood until his death, and the wonderful cows left testify as to his value as a breeding bull.—From Mr. Hall's bull catalogue.

Village Flash's first calf, Hallwood Lavender 3d was first in class and awarded cup for best animal in the Central Shorthorn Breeders Association sale this spring, and sold for $1,000. Two bull calves by him, one out of Hallwood Lavender and one out of Hallwood Dot, sold for $1,500 when less than six months of age. A dozen more show him to be one of the greatest proven sires available.

"Believing that Imp. Villager was the next great sire to be heard from in America, I attended the Hanna dispersion for the purpose of securing a bull calf by him. I was there two days before the sale, and studied the cattle carefully. Village Flash was selected as my choice of all the bulls offered except his sire, Imp. Villager, and I determined to buy him if he sold within my means. While he was only nine months old, and not in high condition, I was most agreeably surprised to have him knocked down to me for $750.00. This was so much less than I expected to pay for him, that I then bought my second choice of the sale, in order to develop them and select the one that looked the best after they had developed a little. Later I sold the second bull at a nice profit, and as to how well I select, I can only invite you to see his calves, either at the farm, or at the Western fairs this fall."—From Mr. Hall's private catalog.
